DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Spoken English Course Report 2023-24

The Department of English conducted a two-semester Spoken English course, totalling 120 hours, designed to progressively enhance students' spoken English skills. The first semester, lasting 60 hours, focused on beginner-level skills. The primary objective was to build a strong foundation in basic conversation, pronunciation, and vocabulary. Through various exercises, including group discussions, students gained confidence in speaking and were able to engage in simple conversations by the end of the semester.

The second semester, also 60 hours, concentrated on advanced-level skills. This phase aimed to refine students' fluency and accuracy in spoken English, with a focus on advanced vocabulary, idiomatic expressions, and public speaking. Students participated in debates, discussions on complex topics, and formal presentations, improving their ability to communicate effectively in different contexts. By the end of the semester, students were able to converse fluently, deliver speeches, and engage in high-level discussions.

In conclusion, the two-semester course successfully helped students progress from beginner to advanced proficiency, enhancing their fluency, confidence, and communication skills for both everyday and professional settings.
